ITEM 1: Welcome EALRGA and Asian Studies librarians

Ms Rebecca Wong, current President of the EALRGA committee, welcomed everyone!

Rebecca said there have been many changes since last meeting: Rebecca has stepped down as Manager of Menzies Library, ANU, Bick-har retired from the University of Melbourne (UM) and Michelle Hall also left the Library of the UM. The main purpose of the meeting was to discuss the revised Constitution of EALRGA (1978).

ITEM 2: Minutes of EALRGA AGM 2014 (held in conjunction with the ASAA Biennial Conference 2014, Perth)

Meeting discussed the minutes from 2014 EALRGA Annual General Meeting (In conjunction with the ASAA Biennial Conference 2014, Perth)

A few matters arose from the minutes:

ITEM 2: List of Librarians (public or semi-public) across Australia posted on EALRGA website. Rebecca thanked Jung Sim for making the List of Librarians (public or semi-public) across Australia available on EALRGA website.

ITEM 4: Web site updates - Jung Sim asked if the phrase “incorporating JALRGA the Japanese Library Resources Group of Australia” could be removed from EALRGA website. Mayumi confirmed that it could be removed now.

Follow up ITEM 6: Proposed projects from last AGM – Due to the rapid digitisation projects around the world, the proposed project to make a list of the Chinese “congshu” and Sikuquanshu holdings across Australia may not be necessary now.

Confirmation of the last AGM minutes: Minutes from last AGM meeting confirmed by Darrell Dorrington with seconder Di Ouyang.

ITEM 3: Matters arising

- Aline Scott-Maxwell, from the Monash University Library, reported that a shared Chinese studies librarian position between University of Melbourne Library and Monash University Library (0.7/0.3) will be advertised soon. The position will cover existing vacancies at both libraries and further extends a long-term collaboration between the two libraries (Asian Libraries in Melbourne). The new arrangement will also include a shared Japanese studies librarian position (Monash University 0.7/University of Melbourne 0.3) which will cover the existing vacancy at the University of Melbourne. This shared role will be filled by Ayako Hatta. The two shared positions are a solution to retain the language expertise at the two libraries.

- There was a query about who will be responsible for the central register of all online databases that are subscribed to by major Australian libraries. All major libraries around Australia have manually updated the list and it is available through the ALIM website. Discussion around how effectively it could be harvested automatically by the NLA’s Trove.

ACTION: Investigate and initiate discussions about this ownership

ITEM 4: EALRGA Constitution review

There has been a lot of discussion on the question of expanding the EALRGA to incorporate other Asian resources over recent years. The EALRGA Committee, with support from ex-committee members and still active participants, has updated the EALRGA Constitution (1978) to incorporate the latest initiatives.
The main purpose of the meeting was to discuss the revised Constitution of EALRGA (1978). The Group has been an influential force in promoting East Asian Studies librarianship and resources in Australia over the past thirty-seven years. Due to recent changes in the landscape of East Asian librarianship across Australia and the need to strengthen communication to better facilitate exchange and collaboration among all those who are interested in library resources in support of Asian studies, the group discussed a change of name to Asian Library Resources of Australia (ALRA).

Please refer to Appendix A for the revised Constitution which is effective 19 August 2015

Appendix B: Message from present President Rebecca Wong

Dear Colleagues,

The East Asian Library Resources Group of Australia (EALRGA) has now been renamed the Asian Library Resources of Australia (ALRA) as decided by the EALRGA Annual General Meeting of 19 August 2015.

The group, as reflected by the new name, has broadened its interest to cover Asian Studies at large. It will operate under the new Constitution, and will continue to strive to promote awareness of Asian Library Resources and Librarianship in Australia, and enhance interaction among library professionals, scholars and anyone interested in Asian studies as the Group has been dedicated to in the past thirty-seven years.

ALRA is calling for nominations for the following office bearers in an election via email.

1. President
2. Secretary
3. Newsletter editor
4. Website manager
5. Treasurer

The term of office is two years from November 2015 to November 2017.

Individuals on the EALRGA mailing list who are currently or have previously worked or studied in Australian libraries or academic institutions in areas relating to Asian Studies are entitled to be Voting Members and are eligible to be nominated.

Nominations must reach via email to the EALRGA mailing list at ealrga@ealrga.org.au by 5th October 2015 Monday. The proposers will provide the following information:

1. Name of Proposer
2. Position of the office bearer
3. Name of the Nominee
4. Seconder
5. A statement of why the nominee is nominated for the position and an acceptance of nomination by the nominee.

Ballot for election will be sent to Rebecca Wong (rwongkindler@outlook.com) by Monday COB 26 October 2015.

Best regards,

Rebecca Wong
President
The Asian Library Resources of Australia (ALRA)
