

Greetings from the Editor

Trust the new year is progressing well for all our readers and contributors. My appreciation for the continuing support of our colleagues at the National Library of Australia and Monash University Library for their contributions. Please note our call for nominations to positions within the ALRA family, and I would encourage any with an active interest in Asian librarianship or scholarship in Australia to apply.

Wishing all a fruitful and rewarding 2019 Year of the Pig.

Yours sincerely,

Darrell Dorrington
ANU China/Korea Information Access librarian (Emeritus)
